occurred that was as mysterious as it was disastrous. About 9 p.m. flames were seen issuing from the barn on the farm of Mr. John Allen, situated about two and a half miles east of here. In a very short time the whole building was in flames; the intensity of the heat being increased by the large quantity of hay and grain stored within. The origin of the fire is a mystery, the only theory that gains credence being that it was the

and grain stored within. The origin of the fire is a mystery, the only theory that gains credence being that it was the work of tramps, as there were several loafing in the neighborhood that day. There is an insurance for $800 in the London and Liverpool Co.

The new lock up has fairly started on its career as a house of public entertainment. Mr. John McDermott, sr., was the first guest. John says the accommodation is firstclass and got up on the "Siberian plan"—that is (no chairs or sofas to recline on when you are weary) the only fault. He complains of the heavy rate: it cost him six dollars an hour.

The voters' list for the present year are now in the hands of the people. Up to date we have heard no complaints about "my friends" being left off.

We trust that the press can be stopped for sufficient time to record the departure of the County Clerk for Chicago. One by one the "loyal" sons of Lennox are passing over to that land where they never lower salaries or retire officials for a season. Good bye, Freddie, never more your sweet toned voice will reverberate or re-echo through our township halls, as with fervid eloquence in denunciation of Grit extravagance in lowering salaries, you made buildings shake and Grits shiver with the cheers evoked.

BINDING TWINE.—Silver Compsrite, Red Cap Binding Twine, Machine Oil, Threshing Mittens, String Leather, and a full line of Threshing Machine supplies, Bee Hive Zinc in stock, and Silver Wire for Hives. My price on Binder Twine and Machine Oils are lower than ever before. 34m M. S. MADOLE.

ARE YOU DEAF, or do you suffer from noises in the head. Then send 3 cent stamp and I will send you a valuable treatise containing full particulars for home cure which costs comparatively nothing. A splendid work on deafness and the ear. Address, PROF. G. CHASE, Montreal.

The Greatest Yet.

THE CREAM OF THE CONTINENT TO BE EXHIBITED AT TORONTO.—WHAT MAY BE EXPECTED AT THE TORONTO EXHIBITION IN A FEW WEEKS.

From all quarters applications for space at the forthcoming great Industrial Fair to be held at Toronto from the 7th to the 19th of September are being sent in by every mail. It is now an assured fact that Canada's Great Fair will this fall outstrip any of its predecessors. Never before were there so many entries from the United States, and on no former occasion has such widespread interest been manifested in its success. Notwithstanding the fact that new buildings have been erected and old ones enlarged during the past summer, sufficient entries have been received to almost fill them. Even Great Britain is beginning to realize that it pays to bring its manufactures before the people of Canada, as at no place can they be seen by so many, and several of the leading manufacturers of England have applied for space during the past couple or three weeks at this Exhibition. The railway and steamboat companies have this year notified the Association of their intention to give extremely low rates during its progress. A new line of railway into the grounds will enable exhibitors of live stock on both the great railways to unload within a few yards of the stock sheds. It is wonderful the success that has attended this really great enterprise since its inception fourteen years ago, but it may readily be accounted for by anyone who will take the trouble to examine the prize list.

No less than four-fifths of the many thousands of dollars distributed annually go to the farmer and stock raiser, and while no other industry is slighted, this greatest one receives the lion's share, and justly so. The farming community appreciate this and by their presence at Canada's great gathering every year endorse the action of the Association. While the farmer visiting the Exhibition cannot turn in any direction without seeing something to instruct him, he finds more than that. No pains have been spared to interest and amuse visitors every minute of the day. Manager Thayer of Boston, a man whose reputation in his particular line is continental, has this year added his vast experience in assisting to make the amusements eclipse anything that has ever preceded them. When it is remembered that over a quarter of a million people from all parts of Canada and the adjoining States visited the Toronto Fair last year, one can readily form an opinion of its gigantic proportions and its importance and value to the country at large.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 28, 1891.

$1 per year in advance; $1.50 if not so paid.

Notes From Camp Le Nid.

Mr. Walsh returned to Toronto on Saturday.

Mr. Fessenden arrived in camp Saturday evening.

Dr. Rutten paid us a short visit on Monday. It was unprofessional.

The water is in excellent condition for bathing, and the boys indulge in it freely.

Fishing is good this season, and we never have any difficulty in procuring a good mess of fish.

Our arrangement with the str. Reindeer by which we can obtain our mail and supplies daily has proved most satisfactory.

Every member of Le Nid has expressed his determination to return next year to our annual camp, and to remain longer if possible than this year.

No member of Le Nid has at any time during the past years or the present camp met with accident of any kind, and no discordant element has disturbed the harmony of our meetings.

Our camp was surprised last Thursday by a party from Napanee under the command of Mr. A. T. Harehaw, which numbered about seventeen in all. We were glad to see them, as we are always ready to welcome visitors from Napanee.

A pleasant day was spent by all to many of whom camp life was a new experience.

Dr. Harry Douglass and Fred Mair who have been camped for some time on Evergreen Island returned to town with yacht Surprise on Monday. The boys have had a good outing, and have proved themselves very agreeable neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peplar, of Belleville are stopping at the Glen House. The cottages at the island are all filled. Mr. Dingman's efforts to entertain his friends, and beautify his island have been very successful. Le Nid is under deep obligations to him in many ways.

Mr. Fessenden has won the reputation of being the champion fisherman of our party. While trolling on Tuesday afternoon he thought he had caught the bottom of the bay, but when he began to be towed away at an alarming speed his doubts were dispelled, and after a long struggle he succeeded in landing a 32 pound maskinonge.

Mr. Boyne Harshaw returned to camp on Monday and has resumed his duties at the range and in ferrying milk from the farm.

One member of our camp has been described as a very black white man or a bleached negro.

One of our kittens got a bad scorching by seeking a hiding place in our range before the embers had died away. The other one has had to do duty alone in cleaning the lamp chimneys since its mates unfortunate experience.

The success of our camp in this as in former years has been due in a large measure to the kindness of Mr. Rutten who so generously placed his beautiful point at our disposal, and in other ways contributed to our enjoyment while here.

It is our intention to pull up stakes on Saturday and it is with regret that we quit this pleasant retreat where we have spent so many happy hours. The camp wishes to acknowledge with thanks the receipt from the Express of so many exchanges which were appreciated by us all.

A Visit to Camp Le Nid.

We were invited to visit Camp Le Nid. When I say we I do not mean that the invitation was limited to those who actually went, as it was one of those broad generous invitations, which could be extended to cover the entire human family, and if we had taken the whole town, I don't think the campers would have been at all out of humor. In fact camping seems to generate good nature in those who are its devotees, irrespective of their previous dispositions. Our time was short and the means of transportation between Napanee and Rutten's point are not very convenient for any one desiring to go and return the same day, therefore Mr. Gibbard very kindly placed his steam yacht "Vesper" activity until a late hour. A well known professional gentleman was awarded the prize for securing the greatest number of hours of repose. This exquisite token of the camper's hospitality was unique in its way and startling in its appropriate simplicity. He was presented with a large ant which had been abstracted from its home by the naturalist of the party. A proverb which admirably suits the case accompanied the presentation, which was acknowledged in a few grateful sentences.

The swimming contest was entered into with much gusto. The campers had arranged for the appearance of a magnificent bird, (The Loon,) the king of all long distance divers, which was awarded to the gratified winner of the contest, who despite his 250 lbs, was able to remain under water so long as to take away the breath of the spectators as well as his own.

When the chief cook made this unexpected announcement public the applause of the spectators was answered by a satisfied cry from the onlooking loon. Possession is to be assumed in a few days when the valuable prize will be on exhibition in Napanee.

When the Launch came in sight to convey the party from the scene of its holiday, the wind was blowing the waves of the bay into what at a few hundred yards distance seemed to be large whitecaps, and the absurd rumor was set afloat that some considered the return passage unsafe.

Enquiry proved that not one was afraid to venture, although several were kindly interested in the welfare of their companions. In the end a 7 months old baby, who had already contributed largely to the enjoyment of the party resolved to test the water between Le Nid and Glen Island. This was agreed to, and baby with her escort made the passage in safety. After this test the kindly scruples that had been entertained for each others welfare were set aside, and all but eight returned to Napanee. These latter were so infatuated with Le Nid that they stayed till morning in order as they said to partake to the full of camping life and camper's hospitality.

As supper and breakfast were a surprise upon the campers, menu cards were not issued which is to be regretted. It is but fair to the party to say, that all of the rules of camp (rigid enough) were strictly observed, and undoubtedly this regard of duty did much to render the day enjoyable.

The campers have expressed their regret that something of a surprise party had not been confided to them, as some small inconveniences, which were under the circumstances unavoidable might have been obviated.

Six ladies who were consigned to the "Home for Incurables" tent, would have been better cared for as is evidenced by the fact that Camp Le Nid is sans hand mirrors, bangers, curling tongs, hair pins, and such other articles of toilet peculiar to and dear to the feminine heart.

They also say that if they had known it would have been necessary for a gentleman to sleep all night with a ham and one pair of boots for a pillow, huddled up sardine like, with the rest of his sex, the whole party snoring in every imaginable key, they would have made strenuous endeavors to avoid such a dire calamity.

The writer is inclined to agree with the campers, and thinks that secrets should be kept going, but then the men managed it.

Camden East.

Aug. 24.—On Saturday last the "Useless Nine" B. B. C. added one more to the list of victories of this season by defeating the "Wide Awakes" at Napanee Mills, by a score of 17 to 1. The game was called on account of darkness at the end of the sixth innings. This team has been beaten only once this year and that was a fluke. They play good ball and are very anxious to get at Newburgh again. But Newburgh seems inclined to fight shy of them. Next Saturday Catarqui comes here to play. Game at 2 p.m.

We are having plenty of rain in this section.

We are having a little too much rain to suit some of those farmers, who would grumble if they were born with silver spoons in their mouths.

The Grand Trunk System.

The Grand Trunk system differs from the human system in that the same troubles do not affect it and the same remedies are not needed. For all diseases of the human system there is a tonic purifier, renovator and strengthener as good as Burdock Blood Bitter. A weak system can be built up by B.B.B.

same day, therefore Mr. Gibbard very kindly placed his steam yacht "Vesper" at our disposal, and by 9.30 Thursday morning we were ready to start—all being comfortably seated on board, away we went skimming over the smooth surface of the river, under the skillful management of skippers Meng and Amey. Some of our party which numbered nineteen in all had never taken this sail before, and their enthusiasm over our winding, twisting, beautiful river, was unbounded, and it was with difficulty that we could restrain the ladies from stopping along the way to gather water lilies that danced so merrily on the surface of the stream.

It was almost twelve o'clock when we rounded Thompson's point and saw the white tents gleaming in the sunshine.

We could scarcely figure moving about performing strange evolutions which we afterwards learned, were the preliminary steps to a mess of fried frogs legs, and a huge rice pudding, which we partook of later on in the day. Our whistle was answered by several blasts from a dinner horn, and soon we were being ferried across by the tanned sunburned and hearty looking campers, some of whom were not recognized, although well known to our party. There is nothing particularly striking about a camper's uniform, it seems to be an opportunity for wearing out old clothes, yet we could not but admit that the variegated garments in which some of the campers were arrayed were exceedingly becoming.

We were all delighted with the camping ground which has now become a beautiful point of land, covered with magnificent trees, decked with flags and bunting and whose foliage hid the hammocks swung below; two dancing, dimpling sheets of water stretched far to either side, with the distance, and an occasional steamer passing up or down the bay to lend variety to the scene. Is it any wonder the boys are in love with the spot, and that they speak truly when they say they wouldn't exchange it for any other spot in the Bay of Quinte district.

Once we and the refreshments we had brought to swell the larder of Le Nid had been successfully landed our party immediately set to work with the assistance of the campers to make ourselves at home which proved an agreeable task; some took to the hammocks, especially the ladies, who appeared to entertain a decided fondness for the netted swing—others of us inspected camp finding the tents tastefully arranged with bouquets of wild flowers distributed among them, there was a place for everything, and everything was in its place, even to two tiny kittens which were snugly housed in a hollow log, and a colony of tame bull frogs sang their sweet lullabys in an artificial pond.

Another party under the guidance of a member of Le Nid pulled across the bay in search of water lilies. They returned laden with a good supply, and with appetites that did them credit, when the dainty toothsome dinner Le Nid had prepared was spread before us.

The mid-day meal was the next order of business, and what a meal it was. Here is a copy of the menu card.

Vive Le Nid.

This sumptuous repast having received ample justice at our hands, we proceeded to the festival of enjoyments. The first of these was a test of hammocks—this was a lengthy occasion, but at the close of the day it was found that one of the tree swing nets would hold four in comfort and leave the rest in envious admiration. Contests in lounging, swimming, resting and fishing were indulged in with ceaseless

Miss Gertrude Sharp has gone to Belleville to visit friends there and in Sidney. Mrs. A. N. Diamond and granddaughter, of Toronto, are visiting friends here. Mrs. Kennedy and daughter, of Toronto, are the guests of James Loyst.

Camden East.

Aug. 19.—The "Prentice Boys" report having had a good time at Verona on August 12th; also two political speeches by Messrs. J. W. Bell and G. W. Dawson, M. P. Such speaking should be tabooed at such celebrations, as I have always understood that the P.A.P.B. was a religious and not a political society.

On Sunday the P.B.'s and Orangemen marched to Methodist church to hear Mr. Williams deliver a discourse to them.

At a meeting of the congregation of St. Luke's church, held last Thursday evening, it was decided to hold the second annual Harvest Home on Sept. 10th.

The rain on Saturday afternoon prevented the baseball match between Napanee Mills and Camden East. We hope to have the pleasure of facing them on the diamond again soon.

A number of the sports are at Third Lake fishing and berrying this week. Among them were H. McCarthy, A. Hamilton, C. Riley, Jno. Warner, M. Warner, and James Warner.

The dam is undergoing a series of repairs and the water is therefore very low here.

Mr. B. D. Parrott's hand is progressing favorably since his accident.

Bath.

(Received too late for last issue.)

Aug. 12.—Summer tourists have taken Bath by storm.

T. Edwards' palatial residence is full to the gate with guests from New York, San Antonio, and other prominent places in the U.S.

Principal diversion is fishing. Some wonderful catches might be recorded. Let one case amongst the many suffice to show the quantities taken. Messrs. Fred. Ham and John Murdoch in a few hours on Saturday last caught 104 fine bass and perch. Seven tons of white fish was reported to be out for Cape Vincent from Bath last week. This may sound fishy, but it is a fact nevertheless.

The Sunday school excursion on Thursday was a grand success. Notable amongst the guests representing the different churches were Rural Dean Baker, Rev. Sharp, Rev. Harris, and Rev. J. C. Seymour. (The millennium will come.)

Mrs. Thos. Armstrong is building a fine residence on Main street west.

Wm. Topf has opened a shoe shop in the Hogle Block. He is meeting with grand success.

Bath is improving slowly. While we regret the absence of the railroad, yet we have enough music to break our slumbers with the steamboat whistle on one side, threshing machines on the other, and the ding dong of the academy bell almost every evening; still we do not tire. Truly we are a forbearing people.

We are sorry to report any sickness in this healthy little town; yet there are two cases—Mrs. Abernethy and Mrs. Max Robinson. Both, however, are doing well under the able care of Dr. Northrup.

The peace of our quiet town was disturbed greatly by a cheese drawer from the vicinity of Wilton who got full of something bad, or it may have been in him before. He came anyway. What came out of his mouth was not fit for the ears of man or beast. We hope he will not come again soon.

LATER.

Mrs. D. J. Campbell is slowly recovering from a severe shock to her nervous system, caused by the sad intelligence of the death of her daughter Kate, residing in Baltimore, whom she expected home every day to visit her. She has our sincere sympathy.

A sad case of blood poisoning occurred here. Mr. Walleit, son-in-law of Alexander Johnston, had a boil lanced a few days ago. His life is despaired of, mortification having set in. He has a wife and a child.

Wm. B. Kaylor, Esq., has returned from camping down the River St. Lawrence, where he has been for the past three weeks. He looks quite rested from his excessive labors in Bath public school. He glides over the water in a fine boat, the product of his own handiwork.

Miss Mary Wemp has returned to Rochester after a four weeks' visit with her parents.

Miss Eva and Henry Wemp are home again after two weeks' visit to R. J. Guess, Lansdown.

to a Quaker for a few months incarcerated home.

School has reopened under the management of Miss Harrison.

Stella.

Death robbed us of one of our oldest residents on Thursday, 20th inst., in the person of Mrs. Stephen Tagwell. She was 82 years of age, over fifty of which she spent on Amherst Island. Her remains were interred in Glenwood cemetery on Saturday, the 22nd inst. Her husband, who is 85 years of age, and four children, all residents of this place, survive her.

Mrs. W. Saunders, Deseronto, is at Mrs. R. Patterson's.

Miss Toney, of Kingston, is at Mrs. J. Brown's.

Morven.

This little place is quite settled down since the Harvest Dinner is all over, which was such a grand success. Receipts for the day were $126.19. Who can beat that.

Mr. John Gordanier is very low with the fever, but under the skilful treatment of Dr. Ward, we hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Perry and family of London, Ont., are spending a couple weeks at his fathers, Mr. S. W. Perry's.

We are much pleased to see Mr. Martion Kaylor in our midst again. Just on a visit I believe.

Mrs. Hiram Amey has sold her farm to Mr. W. Henwood. We welcome Mr. Henwood to our midst.

No School this week on account of the death of Miss Phippens father in Bath.

Mr. Parker VanLaven met with a serious accident on Wednesday through the upsetting of a load of grain, and the horses running away, breaking one of his limbs below the knee, but is doing nicely the last report.

Mr. Mallet and Davy have gone out blackberrying. We hope they will bring out enough for us all.

NAPANEE, FRIDAY, AUG. 28, 1891.

Mr. Abbott has proved himself a success at handling the boodles, but when it comes to handling the boodlers he proposes a Royal Commission shall do the work.

If, as seems well authenticated, it was Lord Stanley who insisted that Sir Hector must retire, what credit is to be given to Mr. Abbott for having purified the public works department? If Mr. Abbott does not "hurry up" and dismiss Messrs. Chapleau, Haggart, Caron, Dewdney and others, His Excellency may possibly again interfere.

THE monument erecting mania seems to have faded quite away. Only a little while ago and prominent clergymen were ardently endeavoring to secure funds to erect a monument to Canada's eminent chieftain of the Boodle Brigade; but a change has come over the spirit of their dream, the why and wherefore for which is not far to seek.

Now that Sir Hector has retired from public life, there is but one of the old Pacific Scandal left, namely, Mr. Abbott. We believe it was Mr. Abbott who helped Sir Hector down the slippery road to boodling, for did not the present premier hand over to Sir Hector that celebrated $32,000? If one of these two is worse than the other, it is not the one who obtained Sir Hugh Allan's money, and then distributed it.

THE Mail charges that the Toronto Harbor Works have been manipulated and "exploited" for the benefit of the Tory heelers and wire pullers, and contractors, in as great a degree as any other of the big jobs undertaken by the Dominion Government during the past few years. As it adduces a history of the work to substantiate its charges, it seems more than probable that this work would afford a good field for enquiry as to boodling. Some surprise is felt that the Globe has not handled this subject yet to any extent; but as the scene is so near at home, and a good many local men are interested, a thorough overhauling is to be expected. Turn in whatever direction one may, as soon as a Government job is enquired into, something rotten is discovered.

THE Senate has very properly asserted its right to enquire into the expenditure of monies, provincial or federal, in connection with the Baie des Chaleurs Railway. But the provincial legislature of Quebec will also claim the right to enquire into the spending of federal or provincial monies given in assistance of railways in that province, and who can deny their right? Some interesting revelations may therefore be expected when the Quebec Legislative Assembly gets to work.

A Man Pronounced by Eminent Physicians Permanently Disabled, Fully Recovers—Fac-simile of the Cheque for $1,000 Paid by Royal Templars of Temperance for Total Disability—Hundreds of Visitors.

Toronto Daily Globe, July 25.—This is an age of do-its: especially in regard to cures by patent medicines, and not without reason for too often have the sick and their near and dear ones been deceived by highly recommended nostrums that were swallowed to be of less avail than as much water. The old old fable of the boy and the wolf applies also too freely to many of the specific concoctions for curing the ills that flesh is heir to; and when a real cure is effected by a genuine remedy those who might be benefited by it tight shy of it saying "it was 'cure cure' so often before that I won't try it." When such a state of affairs exists it is advisable that assurance should be made doubly sure.

A few weeks ago a marvellous and almost miraculous cure was made known to Canadians through the medium of the Hamilton newspapers. It was stated that Mr. John Marshall, a well-known resident of Hamilton, by the aid of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, had been snatched from the very jaws of death, placed upon his feet and enabled to mingle with his fellow citizens with more than renewed health and strength and even brighter spirits than he had experienced for years before. This remarkable statement naturally excited the wonder of almost a continent. Some believed, most people doubted although the facts were placed so clearly as to ward off the slightest suspicion of fraud. To investigate the very extraordinary cure and place before the people of Canada and the United States verification or otherwise of it was the special mission of a Globe reporter a few days ago.

A close inquiry into the circumstance first showed that Mr. John Marshall, whose residence is 25 Little William street, off Barton street, in the northeast portion of the city, while employed as foreman for the Canadian Oil Company, five years ago, fell upon the edge of an oil vat and hurt his back. Thinking little of the affair, Mr. Marshall continued to work on but after a few months he became ill, gradually got worse, and in August, four years ago became stricken with that dread disease, locomotor ataxy—a disease attacking the nerves and rendering that portion of the system attacked perfectly helpless, proclaimed by physicians to be incurable—which left him from the waist downwards without feeling and utterly unable to move his lower limbs. All he was able to do was to raise himself by the aid of crutches and drag himself around the house and occasionally to the corner of the street on fine days. His legs were without feeling, pins and even knives were stuck into them without the sick man experiencing any inconvenience. He could take a walking stick and beat his legs until the blows resounded through the house and yet he felt nothing. During all these years of torture Mr. Marshall consulted every doctor of ability in the city; tried every form of treatment and took almost every kind of patent medicine, but without receiving one tithe of relief. The Pills, although Mrs. Marshall tried hard to dissuade him, saying, they would be as ineffectual as all the others, but on April 14—a memorable day to him—Mr. Marshall commenced to take the pills, one after each meal for a start. In a few days a change was noticed and as he continued to take the pills he gradually improved and in a little over a month he was able to take the train for Toronto and visit an astonished brother-in-law. Now he can walk four or five miles with the best of his friends.

The Globe representative paid a visit to the house of the man thus rescued from a living death. Mr. Marshall's home, cosy, comfortable, with climbing flowers covering its front, was reached only to find him out, taking a few miles constitutional up town. Mrs. Marshall, with smile-wreathed face, and looking as happy and light hearted as upon her wedding day, welcomed her visitor and appeared delighted to have the opportunity of telling frankly and fully—while awaiting Mr. Marshall's return—what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done for her husband.

"It was a happy day for me," she said "when Mr. Marshall tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Many's the weary day I had before that. Look at all these things we bought, hoping they would cure him," and the good lady turned with an armful of straps and tacklings of all kinds. There was a combination of harness and attachments of leather used for the "suspensory treatment" by which the crippled man was hung in the barn with his feet but a few inches from the floor. There were enough belts, bandages, supporters and soles to set up a good sized store. Then Mrs. Marshall showed a collection of crutches and sticks which her husband had used. The whole collection was a large and remarkable one.

Mrs. Marshall showed a letter received that day from New York State, in which was a query similar to many that had previously been received by Mr. Marshall "Write me if it is a fact or only an advertisement."

"Here's a bundle of letters," said Mrs. Marshall, showing about a hundred letters tied together "that my husband has received during the past two weeks, and I can tell you he is only too glad to answer all the questions cheerfully and readily, for he is anxious to give all the information he can to others suffering as he did." A firm step here was heard at the gate and in a moment a sturdy, healthy looking man of middle age with glowing black side whiskers and ruddy pleasant features, stepped into the room. It was Mr. Marshall who gave no indication of ever having been a sick man, suffering from ataxy. When the reporter's mission was explained, Mr. Marshall's face lighted up with a smile, which caused a responsive one on the features of his wife, and he expressed his perfect willingness to tell all that was asked of him.

"Why I feel better now than I did ten years ago," said he, cheerfully "It's four years next August since I did a day's work but I guess I can soon make a start again. About my illness? It was all caused through falling and hurting my back. I kept getting worse until I couldn't get off a chair without a stick or crutches. The lower part of my body and legs were useless. I tried every doctor and every patent medicine, spending hundreds of dollars. Everything that was likely to help me I got, but I might as well have thrown it in the bay. I suppose my wife has shown you the apparatus I used at one time or another. A dozen city doctors gave me up. I got enough electric shocks for half a dozen men, but they did me no good. I lost control of my bowels and water and could not sleep without morphine. During the day my legs were cold and I had to sit by the stove, wrapped in a blanket suffering intense agony from nervous pain in the back and head. Now I can walk

Coal - Coal

I told you last year that I had come to stay, so here I am, and I am glad to see the people to say how long I shall remain in the Coal Trade.

I take this opportunity to thank my patrons of last year for the liberal support they gave me also, thank those who gave their sympathy. If those who supported me continue to do so, and those who were in sympathy give me their support this season I will continue to say, but without your support and I am out, and I don't want to be a loss per ton.

If the other dealers say that I did not put down the price of Coal, why is it that Coal in Toronto the winter of 1899 was so dear and in Napanea so? While in 1898 it was 50 in Toronto and 55.50 in Napanea.

My Coal this year is from the Williams District, and is of superior quality, as announced by those who know to be so. Good Authentic Coal as there is in Pennsylvania. Last year I was disappointed from the fact that I had only one chance to get in the coal market, while this year I had the chance of six firms to select from, and, therefore, have a better quality of coal than I had last year, and am prepared to sell as cheap as any other dealer in town.

Please call and inspect my coal before placing your order, and consult your own interests.

Legislative Assembly gets to work. There are the Gatineau Valley, the Lake St. John, the Montreal & Sorel, the St. Charles Branch, and various other jobs to be investigated. From the way other monies have been expended, the Dominion grants to these enterprises, it is concluded, have been largely misappropriated. What a time there will be when the Quebec government begins to get in its work.

The Reform party of the Dominion have taken the right stand with regard to the Boodling Brigade. Whether the Quebec Assembly or the Ottawa Ministry are threatened, makes not a particle of difference. Let us have the truth, and the whole truth. The Senators have established to their own satisfaction that Pacaud obtained $100,000 of the Baie Chaleurs grant as a boodle. But having got so far why stay their hand? Why not enquire into the disposal of the large Dominion bonuses? The testimony of Mr. J. Macdonald shows that the Robitaille, and Riopel crowd, all Tories, got away with about $700,000 of Government subsidies; but the Senators do not wish to push enquiries in this direction. Proving that Mr. Pacaud got $100,000, some of which is supposed to have gone to pay Mr. Mercier's debts, is splendid business for them; but the greater boodle of $700,000 by friends of their own is quite another affair, and quite a coercion will be required to induce the Senators to pursue this branch of the Baie Chaleurs enquiry. Mr. Cockburn, of Toronto, is credited with having hunted up this peculiar charge of boodling against Mr. Pacaud, as a set-off against the very many charges of corruption proved against members of the Dominion Ministry. Unfortunately for Mr. Cockburn he did not look far enough into the matter. For a time all went as "merry as a marriage bell," and Mr. Cockburn boasted that he had saved his party. But, alas! for Mr. Cockburn, there was more boodling in the matter than he expected, and now when the tables are completely turned on him, he is not the best liked man in Tory circles. His little scandal against the Mercier government has developed somewhat, and opened up upon what seems to be an unlimited field of Tory boodling.

TORONTO'S GREAT FAIR.

The wheel of time has again revolved and Canadians are invited again to visit Toronto's great Industrial Fair, which will be held this year from the 7th to the 19th of September. Many important alterations and improvements have been made in the buildings since last year. The attractions on this occasion will be on a far more extensive and elaborate scale than ever before. Space in all the buildings has been applied for earlier than usual this season, and the live stock and agricultural department is alive head of any previous year. All intending exhibitors should bear in mind that the time for receiving entries will close in a few days, after which the books will not be again opened. In conclusion, we may say we cannot recommend a more profitable or interesting holiday trip than a visit to the Toronto Exhibition. During its continuance the cheapest rates of the year will prevail on all railways.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once for a bottle of Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. For children teething its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhea, regulates the stomach and bowels, kills and cures colic, soothes the inflamed membrane, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all drug stores throughout the world. Price, 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP and take no other. 517

Without receiving one particle of relief. The agony was frequently so intense that he was obliged to take morphine pills in order to receive a reasonable amount of sleep. As the months and years passed by, although the doctors continued to treat him in various ways, they plainly told the suffering man that he could not get better, the disease was set down in the works of the specialists as incurable. The doomed man was member of the United Empire Council No 190, Royal Templars of Temperance and under the discouraging circumstance he thought it advisable to apply for the total disability claim of $1,000, allowed by the order on its insurance policy. Application was accordingly made, but before the claim was granted the patient had to offer conclusive proof of his total disability to the chief examiner and Mr. Marshall was sent to Toronto for a special electrical treatment. It proved to be more successful than the others that had preceded it, and a number of city doctors and the chief medical examiner signed the medical certificate of total disability and Mr. Marshall received from the Dominion Council of the Royal Templars a check for $1,000 last November. One day last February came Mr. Marshall's salvation although he did not accept it at first. A small pamphlet telling of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and the diseases they cured, was thrown into the house, but it was placed aside and no notice was taken of it for weeks. One day the sick man re-read the circular and concluded to try Dr. Williams' Pink pill. suffering intensely from nervous pain in the legs neck and head. Yes, I received from the Royal Templars a $1,000 check, being declared totally unable to follow my employment. One day in April I took a notion to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, carefully following the directions accompanying each box. Why, in three days I got relief and kept on mending. I threw away the morphine pills and the crutches. I recovered my appetite and regained control of my bowels and water and kept getting better and stronger and now you see me getting better and stronger and more healthy than I was for years before I was taken ill. I tell you I am feeling first class," and Mr. Marshall slapped his legs vigorously and gave the lower part of his back a good thumping, afterward going up and down the room at a lively gait. "I weigh 160 pounds to-day," he continued "and I've gained 30 pounds since I first took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I haven't such a thing as a pain or ache about me and another thing, I can walk as easily in the dark as in the light." Mr. Marshall offered to make an affidavit to the truth of the above story, but the reporter considered that wholly unnecessary. He carried conviction to the inquirer's mind by every word and action, and there was no gainsaying the fact that the cure was one of the most marvellous in the nineteenth century. All the neighbors bore testimony to the genuineness of the cure. None of them ever expected to see Mr. Marshall on

The Toronto "Idea."

From the Ottawa Free Press.—No doubt the country will be shocked at the Toronto harbor works scandal, which is, according to the Mail, quite as bad as the Langevin-McGreevy affair and of much the same character. The Holy City of Canada, the fountain of honor, purity, and intellectual greatness, is disgraced. In fact "the Toronto Idea" seems to differ very little from what some of the papers have been describing as "the Quebec Idea." When scandals occur in Lower Canada, and charges of dishonesty are preferred against public men, the whole business is charged against the French Canadian race. The readers of Toronto papers are told that it is not a question of men or of parties, but that the general Quebec idea is that politicians and public officials should boodle. Of course there is about as much justification for saddling the Langevin frauds or the Senecal peculations upon the population of Quebec as there is for holding the people of Ontario to account for the conduct of Mr. Rykert and Mr. Haggart.

But what of the Toronto idea? It is only a few days since the council of the Holy City was accused of selling a great franchise to a syndicate of capitalists—that in fact the members of the council had been bought up individually and collectively. An ex-alderman brought an action to nullify the lease granted to the syndicate, but openly accepted a handsome cheque as the price of abandoning his suit. Here we have "the Toronto Idea" exemplified. But that is not all. Sir Hector Langevin was spending immense sums of money in dredging and making docks at Quebec the inhabitants of Canada's Holy City came to the conclusion that as they always supported the Tory party, without asking why or wherefore, Sir Hector ought to throw some Dominion money into the shallow frog pond which is known as Toronto harbor. And Sir Hector agreed to do so; on condition, apparently, that the city contributed something itself, and that his friend, Captain Murray, of St. Catharines, should have the contract. Captain Murray, be it observed, was one of the principal contributors to the Langevin Testimonial fund. He is also president of the Conservative association of Lincoln county and Mr. Rykert's right hand man. Keep your eye on this Captain Murray. Besides the wealth he has made out of government contracts he made a small fortune out of the North-West Central railway deal. Between Sir Hector Langevin and the Tory leaders in Toronto it was arranged that the job to be perpetrated there should take the form of an effort to deepen the eastern entrance to the harbor, and make a navigable channel from which vessels might pass to and from Lake Ontario. In 1889 the contract for making the channel and erecting breastworks to prevent its being filled in with sand was awarded to Captain Murray and his partner an American gentleman named Cleveland. The work has progressed—so it appears from an illustrated article published in the Mail on Saturday—pretty much as the Quebec harbor works did. The Mail describes the whole affair as a case of boodle and bungle, and says the history of the Toronto harbor works is "a story of greed, extravagance, incompetence and muddle."

Of course, the inspection of the work furnishes salaried positions for some Toronto Tory heeled, but the contractors do as they please. In return for their contributions to the Langevin testimonial and the Tory campaign fund they were given the contract at a figure $43,561 higher than the tender of Messrs. Macdonald & Aylmer. The two tenders stood: Murray & Cleveland, $326,153; Macdonald & Aylmer, $282,591. Curiously enough Messrs. Macdonald & Aylmer were also eured out of the Kingston dock contract by means of the bogus Bancroft tender and letter. The Toronto harbor works are controlled by the Dominion government. The Mail charges that the government and its engineers have made stupendous blunders, which always prove advantageous to the contractors, that tens of thousands of dollars of public money have been squandered; that the work of inspection is worse than a farce, the contractors being allowed to do as they please; that no practical good has been accomplished; that inferior material is being used, the cribs being filled with sand which washes out almost as fast as it is put in. The contractors have in two years put down only six out of the 18 cribs required, so that at the present rate of progress it will take 16 years to finish the work. The Mail demands that the whole harbor works job be investigated, but its request is not likely to be complied with. The contractors feel that they are doing their whole duty when they subscribe money to support Tory newspapers and elect Tory candidates.

And this is "the Toronto Idea." How does it compare with the so called "Quebec Idea?" Wherein does the difference between them lie? And when we find out, rancorous corruption and jobbery tolerated in Toronto, the home of Righteousness and Truth, the centre from which radiates all the sweetness and light which the Dominion can boast of, the country must be in a deplorable state.

A Nationalist Plan

A proposal, which would obtain favor with even the opponents of Nationalism, contemplates the placing of a supply sufficient for each family of nature's great dyspepsia specific and blood purifier, B. B. B., every home in the land. The benefits of such a boon to the people would be incalculable.

Quartermaster-General

The familiar proverb, "what is good for man is good for his beast" is fully understood by all horsemen from the turf to the farm, from the stable to the saddle. Very high authorities on the subject of horse and cattle ailments, concur in the opinion of General Rufus Ingalls, late Quartermaster-General, U. S. Army, who says "St Jacobs Oil is the best pain cure we ever used. It conquers pain." This department has the custody and treatment of army horses and mules, and thousands are treated.

his feet again and regarded his restoration to health as nothing short of marvellous. The headquarters of the Royal Templars of Temperance for Canada are in Hamilton At the publishing house of the order, Mr. W. W. Buchanan, general manager and one of the most prominent advocates of the Dominion, was found. In response to the reporter's question he said: "Oh yes I am well acquainted with Mr. John Marshall. He has been a member of one of the councils of this city for about seven years. He is a well-known citizen and a reliable temperance man. About four years ago he was first taken seriously ill and his case was brought before the order. The provisions under which the total disability claim is paid are very strict. The weekly sick benefit is payable to anybody under the doctors care who is unable to follow their usual avocation, but the total disability is a comparatively large sum only paid a member who is disabled for life to be entirely past all hope of recovery. In Mr. Marshall's case there was some difficulty it is true, he was examined on several occasions, covering a period of upwards of two years. The medical men who examined him all agreed that there was little hope of recovery, but they would not give the definite declaration that our law demands—that the claimant was permanently and totally disabled—not till last November. When by this declaration by two regular physicians and our Dominion Medical referees, we paid Mr. Marshall the total disability benefit of $1,000. He was paid by a check on the bank of Montreal. There is no doubt whatever about the remarkable character of Mr Marshall's cure. A large number of our members in this city were intimately acquainted with Mr. Marshall and called upon him frequently. All were unanimous in the belief that he was past all hope of recovery. His cure is looked upon as next to a miracle. I have conversed with him a number of times about it, and he gives the whole credit to Dr. Williams Pink Pills and the application of cold water which is recommended as a subsidiary treatment by the proprietors of the medicine. He drops into my office every day or two and is apparently enjoying good health now."

The general offices of the order are in the old Bank of Upper Canada building just opposite the publishing house. Mr. J. H. Land, the Dominion secretary, was easily found, and in response to the questions asked simply corroborated all the general manager had said. Mr. Land is a neighbor of Mr. Marshall, living within a block of him. He was well acquainted with him for years before he was taken sick, and pronounced his recovery as one of the most remarkable things in all his experience.

"I have not much faith in patent nostrums," said Mr. Land "but Mr. Marshall's case proves beyond a doubt that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a wonderful medicine. He seems to have exhausted all other means and methods of treatment during his long illness without any benefit, but his recovery was rapid and wonderful immediately after he commenced using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Inquiries among the city druggists disclosed the fact that an extraordinary demand has arisen for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and the claims made for them by the proprietors are borne out by numerous cures. It may be here remarked that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are offered by the proprietors as a certain blood tonic and nerve builder for all diseases arising from an over-taxed or weakened condition of the nervous system, or from an impoverished or vitiated condition of the blood—such as the complaints peculiar to female weakness, loss of appetite, inability to sleep, dizziness, pale and sallow complexions, loss of memory, that tired feeling which affects so many, and disease

John Robinson's Show. THE AMUSEMENT GOLCONDA OF THE PERIOD.

More than seventy years of continuous ovation has characterized the career of the John Robinson show, which this season is reaching the proud culmination of its triumphs. No other show in existence can display so continuous and so clear a record. From the cold waters of the Kennebec to the shores of the Pacific, from the northern boundaries of civilization to the southern limits of this continent, for more than one generation has the name of John Robinson been a household word, and the coming of the always unexceptionable exhibition enterprises that bear his name is ever greeted with a hearty welcome. From the genesis of the show until its present colossal perfection, there has not been a solitary season in which it has not led its fellows in the multiplicity and general excellence of its attractions, and now it towers above and dwarfs all contemporaneous tented exhibitions into comparative insignificance, and this season it presents such an opulence of sterling and meritorious attractions as to truly entitle it to be designated as a vast Amusement Golconda, whose wondrous wealth of entertainment is unlimited and immeasurable. It is merely a work of supererogation to say that his circus has always been the best and biggest, always in the van, always prolific in leading and sensational features, and always fully equipped with the finest stud of horses and the most skilful and finished bareback riders, gymnasts and acrobats in the profession; that his large, well-ordered and well selected menagerie contains living, vigorous specimens of all that is strange, rare and curious

... feeling which affects so many, and disease resulting from over work, mental worry, abuse or loss of vital forces, etc.

John A. Barr, a well-known and popular dispenser of drugs here, told the reporter that he knew of no patent medicine that had such a demand upon it, or one that had done all that was promised for it. On that day he had sold no less than 40 boxes of the pills, and since he received the first instalment he had sold nearly 300 boxes. He told of several cases of great relief and cure that had come under his notice. Mr. Wm. Webster, McNab St., after suffering from ataxia for years, from the first had found certain relief from taking the pills, and he is now a new man. Mr. George Lees, corner of Park and Main streets, after years of illness of a similar nature, had taken three boxes of the pills and was able to walk out very much improved in health. Another case Mr. Barr vouched for was a city patient, who had been cured of the effects of a gripper after having been given up by the doctors. Many others had spoken highly of the Pink Pills as a fine remedy for nervous and blood disorders. Other druggists told the same story.

One thing worthy of note in connection with the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the light expense attending the treatment. These pills are sold in boxes (never in bulk or by the 100) at 50 cents a box and may be had of all dealers or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' medical Co., Brockville Ont., or Morristown, N. Y.

What a burlesque upon justice and common sense are the proceedings in the railway committee of the Senate. The venerable senators vigorously applaud such statements made by counsel or witnesses as are pleasing to them, while testimony which does not cater to their fanatical partnership is ruled out as "irrelevant." Fancy judges on the bench applauding statements made by counsel or witnesses. The fact that Mr. Mercier has a house to live in is regarded as proof positive that he is a boodler and the discovery that some Quebec Liberals have bank accounts is prima facie evidence that Mercier has been distributing money among his friends. But now that the tables have been turned upon the Tories the farce may soon be brought to a close. The venerable inquisitors even sought to exclude Mr. John J. Macdonald's testimony, because it showed that the Robitaille-McGreavy gang had pocketed $700,000 of public money, or about fourteen times the amount alleged to have been obtained by Mr. Macdonald. They also objected to the evidence showing that Messrs. Barwick and Cockburn came before the committee with very dirty hands; their clients having obtained $52,000 of Dominion government money upon conditions which they never fulfilled. And then Mr. Barwick is permitted to make assertions, which may be true or false, in reply to the sworn testimony of witnesses, such assertions being applauded by the members of the committee. Mr. Mercier can afford to laugh at the attempt of the venerable fanatics to injure him by such childish tactics. A paper inquiry by a competent tribunal might have given him serious trouble.

"Why is it," asks a citizen, "that newspapers make misstatements?" "Well," said the reporter of twenty years' experience, "the papers have to tell the stories that men tell them, and it is a moral impossibility for nine out of ten men to tell a thing as it really was. Some may tell it as it seemed to them, but what one man will swear to as the truth the next man will characterize as a lie."

... contains living, vigorous specimens of all that is strange, rare and curious within the range of natural history, and that his royal Roman Hippodrome is a vivid and realistic reproduction of that of the days of imperial Caesar.

It may be said, however, that to these always prominent and desirable attractions has been added, for the current season, a feature so stupendous in magnitude, so overpowering in unprecedented grandeur and impressiveness, and so enormous in the expense necessary to its production, that the features mentioned, grand and multifarious as they are, can at best play but a secondary part. The grand biblical, historical, scenographic, lyric, teryschoric and pantomimic spectacle of "Solomon, his Temple and the Queen of Sheba" is thus alluded to: a transcendently impressive and eminently moral and mind-elevating pageant and scenic production, from the fertile brain of Mr. John Rettig, the projector and creator of "Rome under Nero," "The Fall of Babylon," "Montezuma" and "Bondage in Egypt," noted spectacles which have been annually produced under the auspices of the Order of Cincinnati, and which have become famous throughout the length and breadth of the land. To claim that "Solomon, his Temple, and the Queen of Sheba" is the masterpiece of this brilliant artist is not transcending the limits of veracity. There is not a sensual, libidinous nor lascivious scene, act or thought in the spectacle, and every thing in the entire presentation is holy, chaste and pure. The limits of a newspaper notice prevent mention in detail of the manifold characteristics and excellencies of this gorgeous and imposing spectacle, but the reader will find exhaustive description in the bills, circulars and advertisements disseminated broadcast by the management. The Robinson show will exhibit at Napanee on Sept. 1.

Mrs. Million's Ride.

When Mrs. Million goes to ride she travels forth in state. Her horses, full of fire and pride, go prancing from the gate. But all the beauties of the day she views with languid eye. Her flesh in weakness wastes away, her voice is but a sigh.

For Mrs. Million is in an advanced stage of catarrh, and all the luxuries that wealth can buy fail to give her comfort. She envies her rosy waiting-maid, and would give all her riches for that young woman's pure breath and blooming health. Now, if some true and disinterested friend would advise Mrs. Million of the wonderful merits of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, she would learn that her case is not past help. $500 reward is offered by the manufacturers for a case of catarrh in the head which they cannot cure.

—There was a great rush to Presque Isle to witness the boat race between Peterson and O'Connor last Wednesday. It is estimated that five thousand people were present to enjoy the picnic and witness the day's proceedings. All the steamers on the bay were busy carrying passengers. O'Connor easily defeated Peterson in the mile race.

ELECTRICITY IN THE CURE OF PSYCHASES. Attention is called to the Dorenwend Electric Belt. It is an invention of Mr. C. H. Dorenwend, of Toronto. It is essentially of a battery in a belt, given a current of electricity, which can be regulated by the wearer, and is applied to the diseased parts by attachments. Competent authorities pronounce it to be far ahead of the orthodox method of applying electricity. It can be used by anyone. Send for the book and pamphlets to the Dorenwend Electric Belt Co., Toronto. See advertisement in another column.

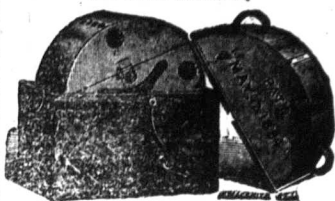

—The air is still thick with scandals at Ottawa and Canadians may well hang their heads with shame. As a result of the exposures, Sir Hector Langevin has resigned his portfolio, Hon. Thomas McCreavy has resigned his seat in the commons and fled the country to avoid arrest for contempt of parliament. Mr. Senecal, head of the printing bureau, has been suspended; Mr. Bronskill, of the same department, has been dismissed, and Arnold, chief engineer, has also received his dismissal.

SELF APPLICATION OF ELECTRICITY FOR MEDICAL PURPOSES, BY THE DORENWARD ELECTRIC BELT AND ATTACHMENTS.

THE WORLD'S BEST

All diseases curable by electricity can be treated at home by the Dorenward appliance. The Dorenward is the only legitimate Electricity Belt made which fulfills the requirements of electro-medical science. It is a complete Boly Battery, it has an independent battery, which generates a mild continuous current of electricity (without shocks) and can be regulated to suit the strongest man, or the weakest child. It is a Current of Quantity, not merely a sensation current and the quantity current is the greatest curative. It is a successful treatment for Indigestion, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Liver and Kidney Troubles, Weak Back, Spinal Disease, Heart Trouble, Nervous Debility, Paralysis, Vertigo, Female Complaints, Impotence, Sexual Debar, and all Diseases of the Nervous and Muscular systems.

Remember that the Dorenward Belt is the very latest invention in this line. It was invented by a competent electrician and ranks as the best in the world. We defy any one to bring proof to the contrary.

Do not class this Belt with the humbug combinations of leather and metal with which the country is being flooded. If you wish to experience with the most successful results, buy them, but if you want to procure a genuine electric belt, and one that will be of benefit to you, get a Dorenward Belt.

Send name and address for Illustrated Book on Home Electro-medical treatment and mention this paper. The Dorenward Electric Belt and Attachment Co., C. H. Dorenward, Electrician, 101 Yonge Street, Toronto, Canada.

The Dorenward Belt is the only one that will stand expert examination. Others keep clear of it, while we solicit it.

COLLIERY DISASTER REPORTED FROM WALES.

Scenes at the Pit's Mouth—Hungary
Threatened With Cholera—The Alps Covered With Snow—A Tragedy of Mount Blanc—General Foreign News.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The Right Hon.
Henry Cecil Raikes, M. P., Her Majesty's Postmaster General, died yesterday. For some time past he has been gradually recovering from a severe indisposition which has necessitated an entire cessation from official duty; but yesterday he went out walking, when he received a severe electric shock during a thunderstorm. On arriving home his condition was pronounced critical and the right hon. gentleman never rallied.
His death does not create a Cabinet vacancy but leaves a blank in the Ministerial ranks.

The deceased statesman was the eldest son of the late Mr. Henry Raikes, of Llwy-negrin, Flintshire; he was born in 1838 and was a lawyer by profession. From 1868 to 1880 he sat as the Conservative member for Chester, afterwards for Preston until November, 1882, when he was elected one of the members for Cambridge University, which he continued to represent up to the time of his death. From 1874 to 1880 he was chairman of committee and Deputy-Speaker of the British House of Commons, and became a member of her Majesty's Privy Council in 1880. In 1886 Lord Salisbury appointed him Postmaster-General.
Apart from his active participation in politics he was largely interested in commerce.

GREAT BATTLE IN CHILI.

The Contending Factions Struggling Before Valparaiso.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The Herald's despatch from Valparaiso says that a fierce battle is now in progress within a few miles of the city of Valparaiso, between the Balmacedists and the insurgents. The battle has been raging practically for three days, and it is believed that the number of killed and wounded on both sides has already reached nearly 3,000. The first day's fighting (on Friday), resulted in a reverse to the Government forces. The insurgents are receiving great assistance from their six warships which are cruising about in the

40 BODIES RECOVERED.

The Search For the Victims of the York Disaster.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Six bodies were found yesterday huddled close together in the ruins at No. 70 Park Place. The faces presented the appearance of death by suffocation. The eyeballs and tongues protruded and the bodies are swollen to an abnormal size. The odor of the decomposing flesh arising from the ruins is becoming horrible, and the disinfectants hitherto used seem to produce little effect.

At 5 o'clock the body of a man was brought out from the basement of No. 70.
It was found beneath the press frame that had been lifted out of the debris a few minutes before. The head and trunk were burned beyond recognition, but the legs and feet were comparatively intact. At 5.30 another body was brought out from the press room. Half an hour later another pine box was carried out of the ruins and laid beside the other two. When the lid was removed there was disclosed the frightfully charred remains of a young man.

Another body was removed from the ruins at 6.45 o'clock. This made the thirty-fifth body to be taken out. At 7.30 the excavators in the press room unearthed the body of a woman. Blood was flowing from her mouth and nose. The body had not been touched by the fire and was intact. The woman was apparently 28 years old. The body was under a heavy press and it was found impossible to get it out to-night.
Thirteen bodies thus far have been identified at the morgue.

At 12.30 a. m. the total number of bodies recovered from the ruins was 35, none having been taken out since sunset. The number positively identified is 20 and the number reported missing 88.

A PECULIAR SUICIDE THIS.

Wrote His Epitaph and Coolly Called in Death.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—By injecting a poison, supposed to be morphine, into his veins with a hypodermic syringe Julius Rosenthal, forty-eight years old, escaped all his earthly troubles after writing his own epitaph. He was found dead in his room, at No. 228 West Thirty-sixth-street, yesterday, and from his epitaph it is believed that he committed suicide on Friday night. The man was a private nurse, incurably ill with consumption, despondent, unable to get work and almost penniless. These were his reasons for killing himself. He left several letters addressed to various persons. They were found by his bedside. On the back of one of them, written in German and addressed to his mother, was this translation:

TRIALS OF EXPLORERS.

THE "KITE" VISITS GREENLAND'S ICY MOUNTAINS.

Attacked by a Polar Bear—What the Party of Scientists Saw and the Relics
They Brought Back With Them—Mothers Who Would not Sell Their Babies.

ST. JOHN, N. F., Aug. 25.—The Arctic steamer Kite arrived here yesterday with reports of interesting experiences in Greenland, which include a struggle of three weeks with bergs and floe ice in Melville Bay, during which period she made only 100 miles.
Lieutenant Peary, his wife and five associates were landed in McCormick Bay, Muchi-son Sound. Whale Sound, his original destination, was frozen over and inaccessible by reason of ice islands and bergs.

On July 16 the Kite was nearly lost.
She got nipped between two floes, which began to come together rapidly. All hands were put to work, and by digging and blasting the vessel was saved from destruction. On the same night a polar bear attacked the ship and was killed at a range of 59 yards, several shots out of the volley of 30 bullets having taken effect.

By a series of small stages Cape York was reached July 20. It seemed impossible to go further and it looked as if the expedition must be abandoned, as if appeared impracticable to land even there. On July 23 however, the ice suddenly opened, and a course was made clear to McCormick Bay.

CAMPED AMID GLACIERS.

A house was built on the slope of a mountain 1800 feet high, with the glaciers pouring down the hills in all directions. On July 30 the Kite bade the party farewell and steamed south.

The real trophy of the entire expedition was secured on Disco's Lane in the shape of a 300 pound meteorite. Three small fragments of meteorites were found there by Nordenskjöld in 1875, and the Swedish Government fitted out a ship to bring them back.

Among the relics secured were the corpse of an Arctic Highlander, two years dead, and a fine assortment of Esquimo skins.

McCormick Bay is a gloomy spot at best even with the sun high above the horizon
24 hours a day as when the Kite was there.
With the sun out of sight the high hills on all sides will make the prospect indeed dark and hideous. It seems fitted only for a home of white bears and whales, which bound.

The Largest Agricultural Implement Manufactory of Its Class in America.

THE AMERICAN HARROW COMPANY'S WORKS
IN THIS CITY.

(From the Detroit Free Press)

It may not be generally known that in this city is located only one agricultural implement factory and this the largest of its class on the continent. Yet such is the case. Reference is made to the American Harrow Company's works located on Milwaukee Avenue, which a representative of THE FREE PRESS visited yesterday. The concern was established about nine years ago, and under the efficient management of experienced and enterprising men has steadily grown year by year till to-day it is one of the many prosperous industries of which Detroit is so justly proud. Its active officers are: D. M. Ferry, president, founder of the well known firm of seed merchants, D. M. Ferry & Co., whose fame is world-wide. W. Gillett, vice-president, senior member of the firm of Gillett & Hall, the largest grain dealing firm in Michigan, and president of Preston National Bank; W. W. Collier, secretary and treasurer, and O. E. Baldwin, manager of sales, both showed, enterprising generalists of large experience and undoubted executive ability. The company confine their operations to the manufacture of spring tooth harrows, cultivators, seeders and stalk cutters—implements which are now considered by every progressive and scientific farmer indispensable to success in agricultural pursuits, and by the use of which the soil may be made more productive and the liability to failure of crops materially lessened.

Some idea of the magnitude of this industry may be gained from the fact that 110 men and 200 horses are constantly employed on the roads in various districts of the country supplying the demand, while a large force of mechanics and other assistants is necessary in the shops and offices for the production and shipment of the implements. A feature of this industry worthy of special note is the high quality of material used. The wood is carefully selected from the best grades and kept under cover till thoroughly seasoned, while the steel is rolled expressly for this purpose and every piece oil-tempered and put to the severest test before being permitted to leave the shops. The more than ordinary care thus given to the selection of material is the best guarantee to their patrons that the implements of this company possess the quality of durability in the highest degree.

The buildings are large, well ventilated, kept scrupulously clean, and with necessary outdoor space cover an area of four acres. A new brick building, 50x150 feet, which was found necessary for the accommodation of their increasing business, has just been completed.

It is not among American farmers only that the products of the American Harrow Company find special favor. The Canadian farmer is quite as quick as the American to learn and to appreciate a good thing, and the demand for these implements over the border grew so pressing that it was deemed expedient to establish a factory there. The Canadian works are located at Windsor, Ont., where all the implements for the Canadian trade are made, and whence they are distributed to all parts of the Dominion.

The combined experience of the company's active officers and their accurate knowledge of the wants of farmers, gained from many years of experience on the road and the farm, together with the honorable, liberal and courteous treatment always accorded their customers, have won for the American Harrow Company a large and increasing business, and an enduring fame and popularity that is well high continental in extent.

The above firm has now eight teams and as many men making headquarters at the shop opposite the Market Square Napanee. They will call on the farmers of this vicinity and show them the machines working.

Can Not Compete.

ing (on Friday), resulted in a reverse to the Government forces. The insurgents are receiving great assistance from their six warships which are cruising about in the Acunagua River. The Government commander has selected a strong position on the beach of Vina Delmar, as his second line of defence, and is confident that he will be able to repulse the rebels. The excitement in the city is intense, and thousands of people are watching the desperate struggle which is being fought under their very noses. Should the revolutionists succeed in defeating the Government troops, it is believed that Valparaiso will be bombarded by their warships. If, on the other hand, the Bahnaedists gain the victory, the fleet will cover the retreat of the insurgent army, and, if necessary, re-embark the troops. All the Government officials here are confident that Bahnaeda will drive the insurgents back, and, if he does not entirely destroy them, compel the remnants to re-embark in their transports and go back to the north.

Admiral Brown, commanding the American fleet here, and the commanding officers of the other foreign naval forces have combined to protect the lives and property of the foreign citizens, and in case of an attack on the city marines and blue jackets from the foreign warships will probably be landed to see that order so far as the foreign element is concerned is preserved. The fall of Valparaiso would mean the practical collapse of Bahnaeda's power. Outside of the forces now engaged in the death struggle there are no troops to oppose the march of the insurgents to Santiago, and they would, with this city as a base of operation soon overrun all the southern provinces. The railroad to Santiago has not been disturbed, and with the capture of Valparaiso the fall of the capital would be but a matter of a few hours.

The Kaiser and the Corn Duties.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—A Berlin dispatch says that the Kaiser has never been greeted with such enthusiasm as on his return to Berlin on Saturday. The people who lined the street sent up cheer after cheer and the Kaiser showed himself deeply gratified at the evidence of loyalty.

An impression prevails in Berlin that the Kaiser will take the side of Miquel in the dispute regarding the corn duties and that relief will shortly follow the sovereign's return. Hundreds of petitions from public bodies and private individuals awaited the Kaiser, nearly all bearing on the repeal of the corn duties, and shortly after his arrival he proceeded to give these his personal attention. The situation as to bread is becoming more serious, and in the mining districts of Westphalia the suffering is said to be very great.

Pauper Emigration Traffic.

BERLIN, Aug. 25.—(Owing to the increasing number of emigrants returned from foreign ports as paupers at the expense of the various steamship companies which take them out, concerted action by the various steamship lines is being mooted to devise a remedy for the evil of pauper emigrant traffic. Delegates from all the German lines will meet at Bremen on October 1st with this object in view. Consular inspection is one of the things desired by the companies.

Sweet to Death on Mont Blanc.

BERNE, 24.—Particulars have been received of a terrible catastrophe on Mont Blanc. A party ascending the peak was compelled by bad weather to return before arriving at the summit. When the party reached the Petit Plateau fierce gusts of wind released an avalanche, which hurled a Brunswicker named Roth and his guide, Michael, into a crevasse.

The two men were dashed to pieces. Rescuers from Chamouix found the bodies on the following day. The other guide and another party consisting of Count Pavernay and guides had a narrow escape.

Italians Not Wanted.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—Premier Rudin some time ago sounded Lord Salisbury on the question whether Australia would be a suitable field for the settlement of Italian emigrants. The British Government sent inquiries to the Australian authorities and has received responses. The Australian agents generally state that Italian immigration is not favored by the people of that country, and that whatever inducements are to be offered to intending settlers will, by preference, be extended to British and German immigrants.

"Free Trade France."

PARIS, Aug. 25.—M. Ferry, speaking at a banquet at St. Die to-day, said he hoped that 50 years hence protection would have so enriched France that she would be like England, in a position to allow herself the luxury reasons for killing himself. He left several letters addressed to various persons. They were found by his bedside. On the back of one of them, written in German and addressed to the coroner, was this inscription, which is said to be characteristic of the man:

"Julius Rosenthal," born January 9, 1844, at Berlin, Prussia. Came to this country July, 1886. Died August 21, 1891.

An empty hypodermic syringe was by the side of the dead man and a sickening odor filled the room.

In the room were found a sealed letter to Seligman & Co., bankers at 24 Broad-street, a packet of cards, a bunch of official papers, a purse containing $1.56, three bottles of some dark liquid, a valise, and the letter to the coroner.

These things were taken to the station house, where the letter was opened. It read as follows:

A STRANGE LETTER.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21, 1891.
"To the Honorable Coroner of the City of New York:

"I am tired of living and have taken poison hypodermically, sick and suffering for a long time, only able to take liquid food, not able to find a position, nothing left to support me for the future, very much neglected by former friends, not able to find a natural death here—have taken my own life.

"To Mr. and Mrs. Ignatz Steinhart of San Francisco, Cal.: to Julius Bathe of Exchange Place, with Loeb & Kuhn, bankers, and to Dr. Henry Schweig of No. 26 East Twentieth-street, I send, for their noble kindness during my misery, my last farewell, and may the blessings of the good Lord in Heaven be and remain with them forever.

"I would prefer to leave this world a poor gentleman rather than to face this life as a beggar or thief. The grave of the pauper has no terrors for me. If the good Lord desires me he will find me in any place.

"I remain most respectfully,
"JULUS ROSENTHAL."

On the back of the letter was the following memorandum:

HIS HISTORY.

"I am 48 years old. During the terrible epidemic of yellow fever in 1878 I rendered service for over four months in Memphis, Tenn., for many days and nights, and at last was found delirious and sick myself by members of Howard's Association.

"Have never recovered since that time my old strength and for my horrible suffering my name was published with great honor in the southern papers."

A Walking Barroom.

HAMBURG, Conn., Aug. 24.—Several years ago a man named Kildeer Huff came to this place from no one knows where and made his place of abode alrude hut on Potato Hill. He was eccentric and he led a solitary life. He pretended to be deaf and dumb, but boys who tantalized him say that he could swear very fluently. He was apparently hump-backed, and on account of his deformity he was an object of pity to the townspeople.

Last Friday he was found dead by the roadside near his hut. The villagers were surprised by the discovery that the dead man was a humpback no more. The deformity proved to be a padded sack, inside of which was found a dozen pint bottles containing rum, whisky and cordial, and in his pocket was found $197, mostly dimes and nickels. The humpback had been a walking barroom. The town is a no-license, and the Prohibitionists have flattered themselves that here at least no drinking was done. It is remembered now that Huff used to prowl around late at night, and it is alleged that he visited the houses of those who love an occasional nip, and either sold them a pint bottle or else a drink, for which he charged but five cents.

Only 18, But He Had Three Wives.

BUFFALO, Aug. 25.—Harry J. Thorner, the 18-year-old son of a wealthy Buffalo merchant, is locked up in jail here on a charge of having three living wives. The police have been looking for him for some weeks.

About a year ago he represented himself as Harry Hanlin, the Delaware-avenue millionaire, and married a pretty drygoods clerk. The girl found she had been deceived on her wedding trip, and three weeks later she secured a divorce. Since then Thorner is said to have married three times.

William Wants Peace.

BERLIN, Aug. 25.—In a speech at the Merseburg banquet to-day the Emperor said he would never neglect a chance to promote the interests of Agriculture. "We all hope for peace," he said, "and should war break out it will not be our fault."

all sides will make the prospect indeed dark and hideous. It seems fitted only for a home of white bears and whales, which bound.

The academy party certainly had their fill of Arctic experiences. Among the food they were forced to eat are bear's blood pudding, bear tongue, patty of bear heart, sandwiches of seal pie, sea gulls and many varieties of birds. Lieutenant Peary saved a bear's carcass for winter use.

In the latitude of Camp Peary the Arctic night begins at the last of October and lasts 113 days. The members of the party who are in the best condition after that will go North. Lieutenant Peary, if not relieved, will start home at the beginning of August, as he is not provisioned for a second winter.

There are many reminder near the camp, but the prospects for game are not very bright. Caches of blubber were found near the camp, showing the presence of natives in the neighborhood.

Dr. Keely, the ship's surgeon, tried to buy an Eskimo child at Cape York, but though the natives were destitute and sadly in need of wood and weapons, they could not be prevailed on to sell one of their children. This settlement is said to be dying out. Only 48 Eskimos from three villages boarded the ship.

Exploring the North.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 24.—The Behring Sea Commissioners appointed by the United States Government have returned from the north and are now at Nanaimo, where they arrived yesterday morning. Mr. Ivan Petroff, the United States special census agent, returned on the Albatross with the commissioners. He has been engaged in taking the census of the natives of Nunivak Island, located in Behring Sea in the sixtieth degree of north latitude. He found the population to consist of over 600 natives.

It was previously supposed that over 300 people lived on the island. There are no white men there and the natives live in a most primitive style. Their only food is the flesh of the walrus and their only possessions and wealth consist of ivory obtained from the tusks of that animal. There are a few land otter to be found on the island, but aside from these the natives catch no fur-bearing animals and they are extremely poor.

The labors of the the Commissioners of both nations have been concluded and the Danube is now on her way down with Sir George Baden Powell and Dr. Dawson and may be expected here any day.

SHE WAS MARKED FOR LIFE

A Vitriol Fiend's Victim Driven to Suicide by Her Disfigurement.

BUFFALO, Aug. 25.—Miss Fenis Boyer committed suicide at Mill Grove some time during Friday night or Saturday morning by hanging. Her story is a peculiarly sad one.

One night about a year ago her family were startled by shrieks of agony coming from her room, and when they rushed in they found her writhing in agony. While she slept somebody had entered the room and thrown vitriol in her face. The intention was evidently to destroy her sight. Her face was horribly blistered by the fluid and she was scared for life. This preyed on her mind, and when people turned and looked at her disfigured face it tortured her. One day she scraped the quicksilver off the back of a mirror and swallowed it, but prompt medical aid saved her life.

On Friday Miss Boyer seemed to be in unusually bright spirits, but early yesterday morning her body was found hanging from the limb of a cherry tree. The suicide had been deliberately planned. In her room her clothing was found arranged and laid out for her burial.

Her's is the third violent death in the Boyer family. Several years ago John Boyer, the eldest son, shot himself dead. Three years ago, the youngest son was shot by a woman in Bradford. He died soon afterwards.

RESTITUTION BY A BANDIT.

It Took Fifteen Years for Conscience to Effect Its Work.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 25.—Travelling Passenger Agent Baxter, of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, yesterday received in his mail $60, stolen from him at the time a Burlington train was held up and robbed by frontier bandits fifteen years ago.

A poorly dressed man walked into the Burlington office at St. Joseph yesterday and inquired for Mr. Baxter. Being told that Baxter's headquarters were in Kansas City, the man explained that he was one of the bandits who robbed the train fifteen years ago, and handed the check for $60 in an envelope, asking that it be forwarded to Baxter.

He then disappeared and has not been seen since.

SLAUGHTERING OF UNITED STATES CATTLE IN CANADA.

Mr. Dewdney to Accept a Lieutenant-Governorship—The Theft of the Civil Service Examination Papers—Dr. Montague to be Impeached.

OTTAWA, Aug. 25.—In the Senate yesterday Mr. Abbott made an important announcement with regard to the cattle trade. He said that 10 or 12 years ago it was decided, with the assent of the English authorities, to allow railways to carry American cattle from Detroit to the Suspension Bridge. The animals were taken out of the cars at some point in transit and watered and rested.

It was suggested that there would be no greater danger in allowing the cattle to be slaughtered at these points. Gentlemen of considerable capital now propose to carry on the trade of slaughtering American cattle in Canada on a large scale at a point to be fixed and under rules and regulations to be settled by the Government. Permission was not yet granted, but was under consideration of the Government. The proposed rules and regulations were submitted to the Imperial authorities, who approved of them. It was probable that the manufacture of meats, and the different articles made from the offal of cattle would be permitted at more than one point in the country. He made this announcement because some uneasiness was felt, and he wanted it understood that the proposition involved no more danger from infection than the practice which has been carried on for some years and met with the approval of the English Privy Council.

There were no committee meetings yesterday, and Parliament buildings everything went on a dull and deserted appearance. Today however, the Privileges and Elections, and Public Accounts Committees will both be at work and further disclosures are looked for. The probability is that the further investigations of the Printing Bureau will be gone on with. If not the Postoffice Department will be taken up.

It is understood that among the members against whom charges are to be made in the House will be Dr. Montague and Mr. Mills of Annapolis, N. S.

The special committee appointed to investigate charges against Mr. Cochrane will be called for organization at once. The likelihood is that Col. Tisdale will be elected chairman.

The rumor is revived here that Dewdney will resign at the close of the session and will

I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Telephone Extensions.

The new Copper Metallic Circuit Lines of the Bell Telephone Co., from Toronto to Peterboro', have been completed, and will be ready for use by the public on the 1st of September. These lines will also give better connections between Toronto and points west of it, and Belleville, Napanee, Kingston, &c.

New Cattle Pest.

The Oswego Times states that a new pest in the shape of a little black fly has appeared among the cattle of northern New York. The fly settles back of the shoulders and at the base of the horn and eats away the flesh. This season is the first appearance of the pest in New York, and is known as the Texas fly.

Stole a Cow.

William Rogers and H. Castleman were lodged in Hastings county jail by Constable Skrimshaw, of Springbrook, on a commitment of larceny. The two men entered a farmer's barn at Welman's Corners and stole a fine cow, taking her back to Marmora Lake. Constable Skrimshaw traced the men and cow to a woods where he found the men picking berries. They had cut the cow's tail off, and when charged with the theft denied it.

No Tuition Fee.

Most people in the county are under the impression that a tuition fee is being charged for pupils attending the Collegiate Institute. No such fee has yet been asked by the Board of Education and the school is at present free to those attending who live in the county. Although the County Council have a right to impose a fee on all those living outside of town they did not do so at their last sitting and probably will not at the next sitting, which is in December.

Good Fishing.

Messrs. T. Littler and J. Zuefelt, of Glenora, are doing some extraordinary fishing. One night two weeks' ago they caught a twenty-five pound 'lunge', and the four succeeding nights they caught five more of smaller weights altogether totalling up 66 2/3 pounds. They also had in their possession a Silver or Oswego bass weighing 7 3/4 pounds, which is a very rare catch. We might remind our friends that we have a good refrigerator and will answer for the good keeping qualities of some of these wonderful catches if brought to this office.

A Fine Display.

Hulett, the photographer, is always up with the times. His late views of the G.T.R. bridge and other places of note sold at a nominal price and may now be seen in nearly every home. These photos are but specimens of the work he is now turning out in other lines. His cabinets have to be seen to be appreciated and by the process in life-sized work, which is now altogether used in the States, he is turning out some extraordinary work in this line specimens of which, as well as other lines, may be seen in his new studio, the finest in central Ontario. Pay a visit to his gallery and see this fine display of art. Ask to see the late view of Camp Le Nid, which is a gem. Be assured that it affords the operator much pleasure to show it as he is proud of his fine display. His studio is over Perry & Co's drug store, Dundas St.

Died After a Lingering Illness.

One of our saddest duties is that of chronicling the death of William Thornton Thompson, who died on Tuesday 18th inst., at the early age of 26 years. He was the only son of the late Rev. James Thompson, Methodist Minister, who was popularly known here some twenty years ago. For several years he was connected with the Merchant's Bank here, and filled the position of cashier at the time when his last sickness began which seriously affected his lungs. A large abscess afterwards forming in his side which was treated with the greatest skill by Drs. Cowan and Rutan, but discharges kept up ever since. He went to bed on Tuesday evening as usual and was soon asleep, but towards midnight gave a call for help, and almost before his sister and aunt Mrs. T. W. Casey, who attended him, could do anything for him he expired, bleeding freely from the mouth, but without the slightest struggle or pain. Scarcely has a young man lived and died in Napanee so universally respected he having not a known enemy in the world. His funeral took place last Friday morning and despite it being a very rainy and muddy day, the hearse was followed by a large concourse of friends and relatives. The services were conducted in the E. M. Church on Monday.

...dinner water and do other cooking. They plugged the whole and left it there. The well was sunk on J. Clancey's lot, near Newburgh.

Editor's Table.

The Bell for August 29th is even richer than usual, and if anything were wanting to vindicate Grip's claim to be an independent journal this issue would do it. The principal cartoons deal trenchantly, and at the same time amusingly, with the scandals of the day, and the other pictorial and literary contents are sparkling with humor. Another Irish letter from "Teddy Tierney" is among the best of the good things. Get a copy at the bookstore.

Excursion to Picton.

The Royal Templars will run an Excursion to Picton, per Str. Reindeer on Tuesday, Sept. 1st 1891 to attend the Grand Temperance Demonstration. The boat will leave the dock at 10.15 a.m. and will call at Deseronto arriving at Picton at 12.30. Returning she will leave Picton at 5.30 affording ample time to see the town and attend the Demonstration. Those wishing to do so will have time to visit the Sand Banks. Tickets, with admission to ground, 25 cents.

Firemen's Excursion.

The Firemen's excursion last Friday evening was, notwithstanding that the weather was very cloudy and betokening of rain, well attended. Towards ten o'clock, however, the clouds cleared off, the moon shining with its usual brilliancy and splendor. The crowd after spending a couple of hours at Glenora, most of the young people enjoying "a trip or so" of the light fantasia in the splendid dancing stand provided at that place, returned home about two o'clock Saturday morning, "chock" full of glee and jubilant effects of the outing, but the general remark was that evening "I feel mighty tough."

A Great Success.

The largest excursion that has left Napanee this year was that of the Western Methodist Sabbath School which went to Massawassa Park, Belleville and Trenton on Wednesday last. The day was fine, the officers of the two boats Ella Ross and Armenia accommodating the hundreds of passengers delighted. Notwithstanding the fact that over 330 free tickets were given to the scholars of the school the receipts were such at 25c per ticket that after paying the boats $75.00 a neat little sum was added to the funds of the Sunday School. The committee having charge of this excursion and the School itself are to be congratulated on this, the greatest success of the season.

Treced by a Bull.

The bold adventurer who camps out must be prepared to meet aggressions of various kinds, to say nothing of the hostile visits of stray bulls. Mr. F. L. Mair is a young gentleman from Napanee who camped for a couple of weeks on Mr. Allison's place, on Bass Cove, about half a mile from Glen Island. He was accompanied by a friend and had his nice little yacht, Surprise, with him. The camp was on an island. One day while Mr. Mair was slumbering in his tent, a bull crossed a narrow neck of water between the island and the mainland and investigated the tent. Mr. Mair awoke and tried to chase the bull off the island, but was obliged to make a run for a tree and seek shelter aloft. The animal pawed around and invited Mr. Mair to descend and have it out, but the gentleman preferred to keep his roost until the bull was pleased to betake himself to other pastures.—Picton Times.

Presbyterian Social.

The Social, advertised to be held on the Maunce grounds of the Presbyterian Church on Friday evening, and postponed until Monday, was held in the basement of the church on that evening and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather was well attended and was a success financially. The programme which composed some of our best local talent, was well carried out, and all present appreciated the different pieces rendered, encores being numerous. The refreshments were fully up to the requirements of the occasion and great credit is due Mrs. E. Pringle and other ladies of the congregation whose management so largely contributed to the success of the event. The ladies of course regret that the weather was so unfavorable as they had intended having the band and the grounds of the Maunce illuminated by Electric lights in which case there would doubtless have been a much larger number present to hear the really excellent programme, and partake of the ice cream and cake which was bountifully distributed.

Rev. C. O. Johnston has reached home after 6 weeks vacation spent on Muskoka lake. He will take charge of the services in the Western church on Sabbath next both morning and evening. Lovefeast and sacrament in the morning, beginning at 10 o'clock. Evening service at the usual hour.

Swallows in Church.

Last Sunday during the morning services in the Church of England a large number of swallows flitted to and fro through the upper windows after the flies, to the great amusement of the young people of the congregation and utter distraction of the minister who was unable to make his remarks heard above the din caused by these beautiful little creatures, and deferred some of his sermon till the evening.

Home Circle's Outing.

The excursion of the Home Circle on Thursday, of last week, to Picton, was well attended. A number got off at Glenora, some to view the Lake on the Mountain and others enjoying a quiet little fish from the wharf. Mr. Myron Mills was one of the most successful of the fishers, catching a four pound bass. Messrs I. O. Bigelow and Jas. Soby, of Picton, got off the boat at the mouth of the river and spent the day hunting. They did not meet with much success, however, a woodcock being the only victim of their powder and shot. On the return trip a small dog, belonging to Mr. Frank Detlor jumped overboard near the big bend. Everybody enjoyed the trip and speak of the success of the Home Circle's excursions as being unrivalled.

A Girl Disappears and is Found.

Etta McLean, a pretty young girl of twenty-one summers, left her home in Roblin, ten miles north of Napanee, seven weeks ago. She told her mother not to be anxious during her absence, as she had long wished to visit her uncle, Henry Aselsting, in Belleville. Seven long weeks passed, and, receiving no tidings from her daughter the mother became uneasy, and on Thursday came to Belleville, only to learn that she had not been at her uncle's and that he had not heard of her. The mother is distracted with grief, and the sudden disappearance of her daughter is a profound mystery. She can advance no reason for the strange conduct on the part of the girl. In conversation with chief of police Newport she said she had never seen her daughter in the company of any young man and did not know that she kept company with any one. The girl is of medium height, with dark curly hair and dark eyes.—Ontario. Since the above was in type we have learned that the whereabouts of the girl has been located by the police with John Weir, where she was boarding. The girl was delivered of a female child some three weeks ago while working with Mrs. Benjamin, on George street, Belleville. She refused to reveal the name of her betrayer. The mother has been stopping with friends in Canifon while searching for her wayward daughter, has been notified, and will take the young mother home.
